Old Montana Building Company is a custom home builder in Whitefish, Montana, specializing in cabins, cottages, and lodges. The company's homes feature native materials such as logs, timber, stone, and reclaimed materials, inspired by mountain architecture. Its service area includes Whitefish, Kalispell, and Flathead Lake. The company also develops model homes, which are featured on its web site, including floor plans and price estimates. Completed homes are highlighted in its photo gallery, and a blog is included.
