Assistimate Estimating Services is an online estimating service used by contractors and others. The company is based in Corvallis, Oregon. Operated by a network of experienced adjusters and contractors, the web-based service is used by contractors, property owners, adjusters, attorneys, and others. The service provides clients with up-to-date going rates for labor, materials, and equipment, based on their cities, states and zip codes, as allowable and approved by most insurance companies. Pricing options are defined on the company's web site, and estimates may be ordered through the site using the client's own scope sheets or using the scope sheet forms available for downloading.
